OPPORTUNITY:

A chance to grow:
Mentally in our classrooms,
Physically on our athletic fields,
Socially in our organizations.

This is what we found at Handley, but even more, a chance to create new opportunity for others. Trying to take full advantage of this chance, we have worked to make our school a better place. We must now do the same for the world.

Five years ago a young man returned to teach at the high school where he was graduated. As a boy at Handley, he played on the same gridiron, walked in the same corridors, and learned the same lessons we are learning today. The first class he taught here, a bewildered, unseasoned group of seventh graders, are the young men who will walk off the stage this June with their diplomas. This teacher worked hard to instill in them a confidence, a sense of dedication, and a desire to win in all facets of life. These were the ideals that cornerstoned his coaching of five unbeaten Junior High football teams. These were the ideals that he continued to impress on the minds of his first students when they elected him class sponsor. These were the ideals that went into the making of this yearbook, and we therefore dedicate the 1967 Handlian to our trusted advisor,

Libby, escorted by Senior Class President Bob Pullen, was driven around the field. HANDLEY STUDENTS DISPLAY EXCELLENCE

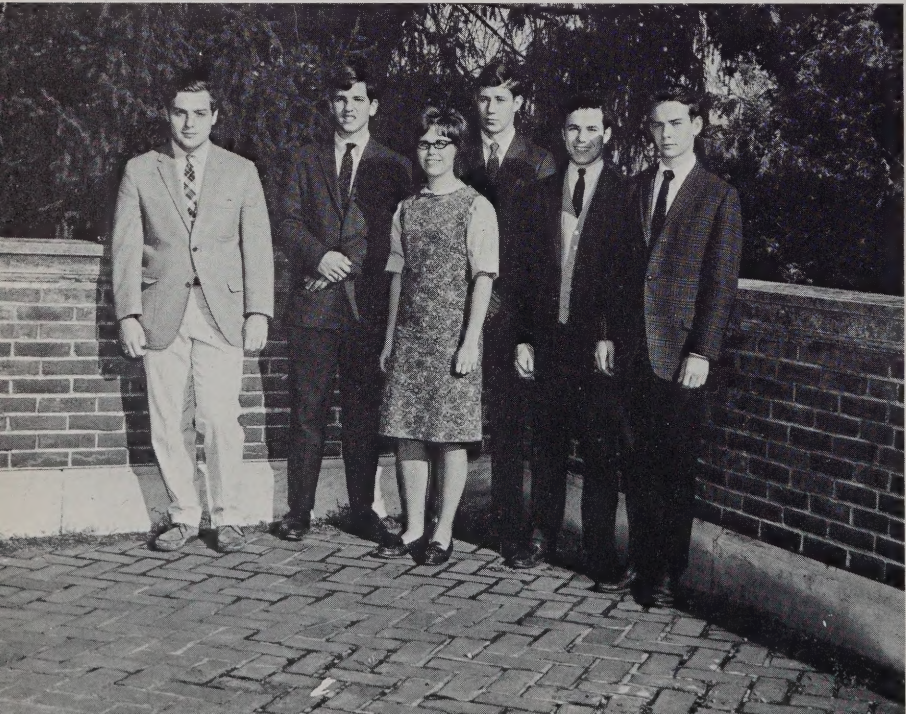
Each spring, Handley students have an opportunity to compete for academic honor in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which is administered to juniors in 17,500 high schools across the nation. This test measures achievement in the fields of English, mathematics, social studies, and the natural sciences. Those students who score high enough on it qualify as semi-finalists and have an excellent chance to become National Merit scholars. This honor entitles them to the many possible benefits awarded by the college of their choice. Perhaps foremost among these benefits is the chance of financial assistance for their study.

This year's senior class prides itself on the fact that one of its members, Michael Mulvey, has qualified as a National Merit Scholar. Mike, noted for his well-dressed look and gift of words, plans to study law.

Letters of Commendation honoring high performance on the NMSQT were awarded to six other members of the Class of 1967: Kenneth Armel, Randolph Grubbs, Clarke Haley, Bonni McKeown, Steven Shrader, and Raymond Tuegel. These students, all of whom rank in the upper five percent of the graduating class, look forward to promising careers in such fields as engineering, medicine, electronics, and journalism.

Letter of Commendation Winners: Ken Armel, Clarke Haley, Bonni McKeown, Randy Grubbs, Steve Shrader, Ray Tuegel.



Joan Lovett and Ken Armel use the lab's electronic balance to solve a research problem.

This past summer, Joan Lovett and Ken Armel attended summer sessions sponsored by the National Science Foundation, Joan went to a biological research program at Northwestern State College in Louisiana, while Ken attended an electronics course at the University of Virginia.

IN ACADEMIC FIELDS

The Vocational Office Training program, taught by Mrs. Clowe, provides an opportunity for Handley students to attain needed knowledge and experience for future office work. This department, which was added this year, is a valuable addition to our curriculum.

HANDLEY ADMINISTRATION FORMULATES SCHOOL POLICIES

Mr. Jacob L. Johnson, Superintendent of Winchester Public Schools.

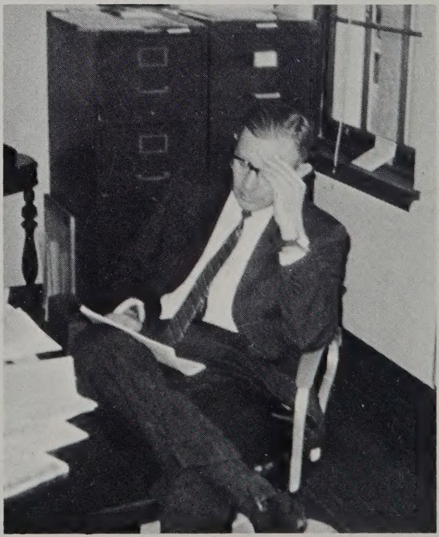
I extend to each member of the Senior class my heartiest congratulations upon your graduation and my sincere best wishes for success in your endeavors in the years that lie before you.

We are pleased to have been associated with you during the formative and preparatory years of your lives. We send you forth with areas of greater responsibility confident that our trust has not been misplaced.

Handley has attempted to instill in you, among other things, a sense of responsibility, a desire to serve, and an appreciation of some valued traditions.

Be true always to these things and to yourself.

Jacob L. Johnson



Mr. Johnson previews day's work.

MR. SHERRARD

This is the second year that Mr. Sherrard, who served on the Handley social studies faculty for many years, has headed our school as principal. He has been a constant reminder of the tradition and responsibilities Handley students and teachers are expected to uphold. In addition, Mr. Sherrard has helped spearhead the move toward a broadened curriculum and the planned renovation of the school building. His dedication and hard work have contributed to the success of our school year.

MR. FRY

During our years at Handley, Mr. Fry has held an invaluable place in the heart of us all. More than just an assistant principal, he has been a loyal friend and guide through the sometimes perplexing wilderness of high school. Gently, firmly, and calmly, he has faithfully made our announcements, straightened out our schedules, signed our excuses, lauded us when we were in the right, and counseled us when we were in the wrong. Mr. Fry has been indispensable not only to the smooth running of Handley, but also to its character and reputation.

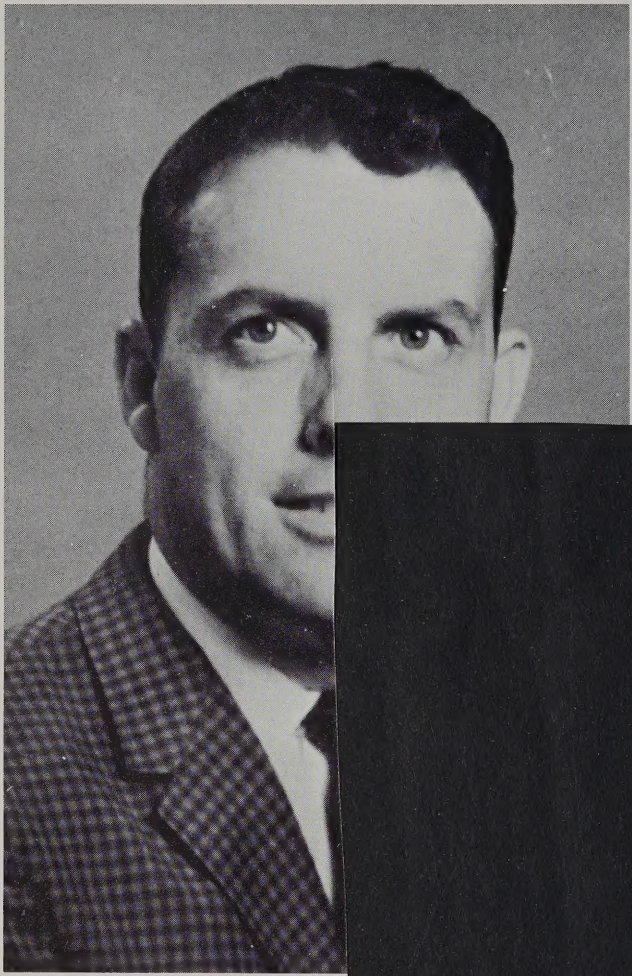
SENIORS



MR. DUVALL

For five years Mr. Jack Duvall has served as one of our chosen class sponsors. During these years, some of us have had an opportunity to study under him in the woodshop or play under him on an undefeated junior high football team. All the seniors of 1967, however, have had the privilege of working under his supervision on our class activities. Each of us can testify to his whole-hearted devotion to our junior stand, class plays, and junior-senior prom.

[redacted]ll of us, too, consider Mr. Duvall a true friend and spokesman. He has stood for what he believes to be est interest of our school and the Class of 1967. For nterest, friendship, and devotion to our cause, we ex-to Mr. Duvall our sincere thanks and best wishes.

Bringing to an end our high school years and focusing our thoughts on the future, we look over our accomplishments only to realize that our six years at Handley have passed too quickly. The fear and insecurity we felt as seventh graders soon gave way to that certain intangible spirit of unity.

As we progressed in years, we began to take an active part in school activities. As juniors, we experienced both the agony of college boards and the ecstasy of inductions into select organizations. The Junior-Senior Prom and its weeks of preparation culminated an active year.

When we received our class rings, we realized that the full burden of leadership was now on our shoulders. It has been a busy and successful year: our athletic teams have been victorious, our classmates have headed functions by all organizations, we have participated in tours, we have created the Handlian, we have presented the Senior play. Now we graduate, each of us leaving behind a better part of himself, but taking with him a multitude of memories and experiences, and above all a love and respect for Handley High School.

The Junior Stand, composed of industrious Junior classmen, plays a vital role at Handley home football games. This group mans refreshment stands on both the home and visitor's side of the stadium. JUNIOR CLASS ENACTS SUSPENSE DRAMA, "THE NECKLACE"

Last year's Junior Play, "The Necklace," based on the short story by Guy de Maupassant, featured fine casting and acting, elaborate stage sets, and ended with de Maupassant's typical surprise ending. The plot centers on the loss of a borrowed "diamond" necklace by a French couple, Mathilde and Robert Loisel. They borrow money from a host of creditors and purchase a necklace identical to that which they lost. In doing so, they are forced to work many hard years in order to repay their loans. Robert finally collapses in death, and, later, in the grief-stricken ending, Mathilde finds out that the original necklace which she borrowed was only a cheap imitation. Thanks go to the cast for their excellent performance in this play which [redacted] was thoroughly enjoyed

PREPARE FOR 3-ACT PLAY, COMMENCEMENT OFFICERS

The Senior Playreading Committee has been hard at work since last summer in an effort to select a successful class play. Beset with the problem of changing sponsors, the committee has been hampered in the selection of a suitable drama. A variety of works by noted playwrights have been studied, and under the direction of newly-elected sponsor Mrs. Ritter, the play should be an exciting production.

THIS IS OUR YEAR . . .
JUNIORS SHOW VERSATILITY IN ACTIVITIES

Accepting the traditional responsibilities of being Juniors, the Class of 1968 has already begun to prepare for their senior year. By operating concession stands during home football games, the Juniors built up their class treasury. In February they worked in committees to produce their class one-act play. Their final project is putting on the prom in June. Wisely anticipating the rigors of Senior activities, the Juniors have already chosen next year's officers and HANDLIAN staff chairmen, and have ordered their class rings.

This year the Junior class excelled in many areas of school activity. Juniors dominated the Varsity football team, which was runner-up in the Northwestern District. In other sports, such as golf, football, and track, Junior boys have excelled in team and individual competition. As for Junior girls, membership in the Booster Club, an all-girl honorary organization, is open to them for the first time. Many have taken advantage of this opportunity, and, with the required number of points, have attained membership.

SOPHS LOOK FORWARD TO TAKING REINS OF UPPER CLASS LEADERSHIP

Handley's talented group of sophomores have plunged right into the mainstream of school life. In addition to performing their traditional goal-post decorating duties during football season, they opened a coat-checking service for spectators at home basketball games. The sophomores, first winners of the coveted "spirit stick", further proved their enthusiasm with several skits and posters in support of our teams. Tenth graders have also participated actively in many school organizations; many have joined clubs which, for the first time, are open to them for membership.

In addition to this participation, sophomore boys have comprised valuable groups in our athletic teams. Though few lettered in varsity sports, they have learned the basic fundamentals of the sport and are ready to see increased varsity action next year.

From this class will be elected next year's G.O. vice-president, as the sophomores take an increased activity. Eagerly, the sophomores look forward to taking the reins of upperclass leadership.

FRESHMEN - THE CLASS WITH SPIRIT

Led by enthusiastic sponsors, alert class officers, and the newly formed Freshman Council, this year's Freshman Class has made themselves heard in more ways than one this year. The boys have formed powerhouse athletic teams complimented by an avid cheering section. The girls' yells, signs, and decorations spurred the Junior Varsity football Attorneys to their first unbeaten season in modern school history. The JV basketball team also compiled an impressive record. In addition to athletic participation and support, Freshmen have shown an interest in school activities. The marked enthusiasm with which they undertook class projects and helped with school activities has prepared the Freshmen for the increased activity and responsibility which they will encounter in their remaining years at Handley.

DYNAMIC NEW SPONSORS LEAD EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

This year the Executive Council of the General Organization began to live up to the true spirit of democracy. Mrs. Looney and Mr. Foreman, newly elected sponsors of the council, helped inspire enthusiasm and co-operation among G.O. members, from the greenest eighth grader to the most sophisticated senior. This willingness to work for the betterment of Handley contributed greatly to the upsurge of school spirit.

Basically, the Executive Council is the representative governing body of the General Organization, to which every student is eligible to belong on payment of the annual $4 dues. The council consists of representatives from each homeroom, class presidents, class secretaries starting with the tenth grade, and the presidents and chairman of all chartered organizations. The council is headed by three student officials, who are elected at large by G.O. members in the spring of the year preceding their terms. David Strunce, this year's President, conducts Executive Council meetings and serves as the official spokesman for the student body. Vice-President David Moore presides in the absence of the President. Carol Gore, as Secretary, keeps the records for the Executive Council, Honor Court, and Monitor Commission.

The Council meets twice a month to make rules, discuss policies, and plan school events. A Student Affairs Committee has also been formed to receive suggestions for improvement. One of the Council's outstanding accomplishments this year was directing and holding the G.O. Dance honoring Handley's football and basketball teams. Another was sponsoring such memorable assembly programs as the "Brothers 40" concert for the enjoyment of the students and faculty. In addition, the Council ratified charters for two new school organizations: Pep Club and DECA.

The willing and devoted assistance of Mr. Foreman and Mrs. Looney in all the Council's operations has proved a tremendous asset not only to the efficiency of Handley's student government, but also to its spirit.

Looking forward to year's activities are new sponsors, Mrs. Looney and Mr. Foreman.

BOOSTER CLUB, SELECT GIRLS' ORGANIZATION, PERFORMS VALUABLE SERVICES AND EDITS SCHOOL PAPER

Sponsors: Miss Strader and Mrs. Garrabrandt

The Booster Club, consisting of junior and senior girls, is one of the most active organizations at Handley. The club functions to further the morale of the school by lending assistance to many ac tivities during the year.

Members of this select group consist of thos who have met high standards of scholarship citizenship, and leadership.

The most important service of the Booster Clu is the editing of the Junior Evening Star. Thi school news sheet is published weekly by th Winchester Evening Star and helps to keep th student body and the community well informe of school activities.

The Booster Club year begins before schoo opens, when the club members solicit ads to finance the football programs to be sold at home games. At the beginning of the school year, the club performs a necessary service through the operation of a second-hand bookstore. Later in the year, the Booster girls are on hand to serve as guides on Parents' Night and College Day in order to insure a smooth program. The club also sponsors a Creative Writing Contest and a Spelling Bee. Cash prices are offered to encourage participation in those activities.

The Booster Club takes pride in its many services to the school, and it is respected as one of the leading organizations of Handley.

Striving to maintain Handley's fine traditions of honesty, the Honor Court, headed by Judge Carolyn Wolfe, issues honor pledge cards to all students and tries any offenders against the honor code. By setting fine examples and reminding students of their responsibilities through posters that are displayed during Honor Week, the Court constantly symbolizes the high standards of honor and reputation a Handley student is expected to uphold.

Monitors direct traffic in the halls during the school day and are on hand to supervise at functions such as the G.O. Dance, basketball games, and Parents' Night. By encouraging cooperation between the administration and the student body, the Commission promotes order and efficiency in all school operations. The dignified and orderly way in which it functions presents an outstanding example of students disciplining themselves.

CHAPEL COMMITTEE PROVIDES SETTING FOR STUDENT WORSHIP

To the Chapel Committee falls the responsibility of planning the morning devotional services held for the entire school every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday in the auditorium. Composed of junior and senior high school students, the Committee organizes a schedule by which representatives of every grade in the school may play the piano, lead the hymn, or read the scripture in chapel. It also sees that the stage is properly and attractively arranged for this purpose.

From time to time the Committee invites guest speakers or choirs as well as Handley's own Glee Club to participate in chapel. This year State Senator J. Kenneth Robinson spoke at our Veterans Day service.

School clubs and organizations are also given the chance to present special chapel programs. At Christmas time the language students form choirs to sing Latin, French, and Spanish carols, and the Thespian Club dramatized a beautiful Christmas legend, "Why the Chimes Rang."

The cooperation and quiet reverence of the student body make the work of Vivienne Allan and her committee completely rewarding. Those few moments of worship together in an atmosphere of inspiration lend everyone inner strength for the day's work.

Chairman Vivienne Allan arranges flowers for morning chapel service.

SCIENCE CLUB BROADENS OPPORTUNITIES

The Handley Science Club is a multifunctional club concerned with involving interested students from the tenth through the twelfth grades in a variety of activities related to science. These students are members by choice because of their desire to broaden their knowledge of science. This was exhibited initially by the submission of a Wildlife Essay for state competition and a paper stating their personal scientific aspirations and the contributions which they hoped to make toward the attainment of the club's goals.

The diversity of these goals offers many opportunities for club members. Important among these is the opportunity to attend lectures by career scientists. Mr. Bird's informative talk on the science and mathematics in photography and Mr. Hubbard's illustrated lecture on archaeology were high points of our program. The trip to Corning Glass Company was greatly enriched by Mr. Huey's careful explanation of the science of glass making.

Foremost among the club's goals is the provision of outlets for student talent. At the Massanetta Springs meeting of the Virginia Junior Academy of Science, Maribeth Watts and Carolyn Wolfe won Second Place in chemistry for a research paper on Chelatometry.

The responsibility for stimulating scientific interest in other students is also a facet of the club's program. The organization of a Junior Club for eighth and ninth grade students was undertaken this year with semi-monthly meetings planned and presented by the science club members. A career-oriented cable TV program was planned by the club, and a bulleting board and display cabinet proclaimed the latest in scientific news each month.

HORTICULTURE CLUB CONDUCTS RESEARCH

This year the Lupton Horticultural Club undertook practical projects as they cultivated their own plots of ground, located in the expanse of clay soil lying adjacent to the gym. Other projects have included experiments with twenty-eight varieties of seeds, the care of shrubbery on the front campus, and the maintenance of a hothouse in the school basement. Besides learning to apply his study, the Club member has an opportunity to contribute to the appearance of the campus.

The purpose of the club, according to its sponsor Mr. Brooks, is "to instill in the student a better understanding of his surroundings through practical experience." Membership in the Horticultural Club is open to all agriculture students. In addition to its projects, the Club highlighted its year with visits to the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Beltsville agricultural experiment station in Maryland.

HOMEROOM PRESIDENTS ASSIST TEACHERS IN CLASS

At the beginning of each school year, each homeroom, from the eighth through the twelfth grades, elects a homeroom president. The duties of the president include presiding over the homeroom when the teacher is absent, carrying on all business meetings of the homeroom, and serving as guide during Parents' Night. The homeroom president also greets the parents coming into his homeroom and issues out schedules to help the parents go from class to class.

RED CROSS PREPARES STOCKINGS FOR VETERANS

The Junior Red Cross is the Handley students' opportunity to participate in the community. In each homeroom, contributors to this organization elect a representative who attends Junior Red Cross meetings and supervises projects in the homeroom. Guiding the whole organization is Miss Overcash, and assisting her are the two student co-ordinators, Sharon Rudolph and Dawson Riggleman.

In addition to the initial Red Cross drive, projects include the gifts and favors made at Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Easter season for the veterans in the nearby hospital at Perry Point, Maryland. Christmas brings a very special Junior Red Cross activity: the decorating and filling of stockings with gifts for the veterans. Not only does this promote friendly co-operation among the homerooms (there is a c [redacted] ecorated stockings), but it also encoura spirit by giving students a chance to fortunate than they.

DECA -- HANDLEY'S NEWEST OPPORTUNITY

This year, for the first time, a chapter of DECA has been installed at Handley. DECA stands for "Distributive Education Clubs of America" and is organized on three levels---national, state, and local. The club is designed to develop future leaders in marketing and distribution. It is the only club of its kind established to assist students who plan careers in this field. The four points of the diamond in the club's emblem (shown above on club banner) symbolize the DECA member's four goals: Vocational Understanding, Civic Consciousness, Social Intelligence, and Leadership Development.

Handley's DECA consists of all the sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the General or Commercial curricula taking the Distributive Education program. DE seniors have the opportunity to supplement their study with actual part-time employment in their chosen vocation. DECA offers further opportunity for activities and for recognition on the local, state, and national level.

One of the Handley DECA's first projects was submitting written reports on marketing to the District 10 contest. Winning essays compete in the State contest. Another event was the DECA District 10 Rally in October, held this year at Turner Ashby High School. Here the Handley students had the chance to meet other DECA members and put on their own program. During DECA week, club members publicized their organization through posters and a proclamation.

Not only does DECA stimulate leadership and a sense of responsibility among the non-academic students; it gives them the knowledge and training which businessmen look for in their future employees.

LITERARY TALENT AT DISTRICT AND ITION

Handley can be truly proud of its 1966 Forensic Team. Chosen through the annual contests held within the school, our outstanding prose and poetry readers, public speakers, and speller displayed their talents to the student body in an assembly sponsored by the Booster Club. In April the team competed at Shenandoah College with students from other schools in the Northwest District. Here Linda Matera earned first place in Girls' Public Speaking; Steven Shrader, Sheri Gaines, and Gene Willis won second places in Boys' Prose Reading, Girls' Poetry Reading, and Boys' Poetry Reading respectively; and Greg Wilson took third in Spelling.

The authors of the best two pieces of work selected from each category win places on our Creative Writing team. Bound in a booklet, their entries are sent to Charlottesville to be judged against those of other schools. To receive a "superior" rating for Handley in this state contest is the goal of every aspiring writer.

This year, in addition to the Creative Writing booklet, we submitted the first issue of our Literary Magazine. A great many students contributed to the magazine, which was compiled by the creative writing and art classes.

LANGUAGE TEAMS

Our 1966 foreign language teams outdid Handley's long record of fine performance in state competition. Not only did a host of our Latin and Spanish contestants score high enough on their respective tests to rate "Honorable Mention", but two of them placed first in the state. The Virginia Classical Association and Virginia Modern Language Association sponsor these annual Latin, Spanish, and French competitions which are open to top students selected from every Virginia secondary school.

In the Latin tournament held last April at Madison College, Mary Jane Clement scored 92.5 on the Cicero examination, the highest grade ever made by a Handley student. For this accomplishment, she was awarded the state first place medal. Right behind Mary Jane, Ann March placed second in Cicero. Handley underclassmen also reaped honors in the tournament. Joan Lovett won Honorable Mention in Second Year Latin; Nancy Novick, Pem Dorsey, Randy Powers, Ann Hughes, Laurie McKeown, Diane Newman, and Ann Schenck received this distinction in First Year Latin. Bus breakdown and all, it was a memorable day for Handley's Latin team. Its members could proclaim with justifiable pride: "Venimus, Vidimus, Vicimus"--"We came, we saw, we conquered!"

Both the Spanish and French teams journeyed to Charlottesville for the 1966 modern language tournaments. Here Steve Shrader took top honors. His grade on the first year Spanish exam was the highest in the state. Honorable Mentions in Spanish were awarded to Bonni McKeown, first year, and to Susan Strawderman and Gretchen Shrader, second year.

In February, the Glee Club sends its finest voices to the All-District Chorus to participate in a workshop and concert with singers from each school in the district. Members of this group may then audition for the select All-State chorus. Last year, Handley tenor Philip Webber was honored with a position in this organization.

The Glee Club, as a group, is eligible to compete against other schools for ratings in the District Choral Festival. Last year, the club, singing difficult music, earned a grade of "excellent" from the judges.

As a result of their extra work and practice, they earned invitations to sing for local church groups and organizations. For a neat and uniform appearance, the Vivace girls purchased identical skirts and blouses to wear in performances.

Eight of the best male voices in the Glee Club were chosen to form a group known as the Octaves. Under the direction of Scott Spellman, these boys have performed at various times in programs and concerts. They sing music that has been especially arranged for male voices. DANCE BAND ENLIVENS FIELD OF INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Trombonist Denny Compton and drummer Marshall Boyd get together for an informal jam session.

Talented bandsmen with a flair for modern music constitute the Handley Hi Notes. The members of the dance band are selected in competitive audition on the basis of their sight reading skills and ability to interpret popular rhythms. This group, under the experienced hand of Mr. Strunce, strives for a harmonious blend between saxophones and brass along with a solid rhythm supplied by the piano, string bass, and drums. The band performs not only for the student body but also for various local civic organizations.

MUSIC FOR SCHOOL AND PUBLIC ENJOYMENT

The Concert Band followed a rigorous schedule of rehearsal and performance. The musicians presented their first program in a successful school assembly, in which they exhibited their ability to perform a wide range of highly enjoyable music. No sooner was this event over than the Band began rehearsing for the District Festival, at which all high school bands in the district are rated by musical experts. At the same time, our most talented musicians were preparing for the All-Regional Band, composed of the finest instrumentalists in the District. Following these activities, the Band practiced for the popular spring concert, a highlight of the school year which annually attracts a full house to the Handley auditorium.

The Concert Band is one of the most hard-working groups in the school. Each day during first period, the sounds of French horns, bassoons, and tympani warming up can be heard wafting down the corridor. Then under the baton of Mr. Strunce, the individual instruments are united into a single musical voice. Certainly the Band is to be commended for its diligence and musicianship.

MARCHING BAND PROVIDES ORIGINAL HALFTIME

Director: Mr. Gore, Assistant, Mr. Dye

This year's Marching Band, directed for the first time by Mr. Gore, delighted fans with their precision marching drills during halftime. These shows, choreographed by Mr. Gore, ranged from a performance featuring a "007" theme to the crowd's favorite, the "Batman Dance," led by drum major Billy Harper in the role of the "Caped Crusader." It was quite evident that many hours of rehearsal were necessary to execute these performances in such spectacular fashion. The band complemented their precision marching with superior musicianship, and time after time bested visiting bands' halftime shows.

ENTERTAINMENT, PERFORMS IN CIVIC PARADES

In the spring, the Marching Band began practice for the Grand Feature Parade of the Apple Blossom Festival. On the day of the parade, the Handley Band led the lengthy procession in stirring fashion. The Winchester area was certainly well represented by such a fine organization, and Handley can be very proud of the performance of her marching Judges.

JUDGES REBOUND TO

Rice Inaugrates Stay at Handley

As the Handley football season rolled around in August, area sportswriters pointed disdainful fingers at the "hapless" Judges and labelled them the doormat of the rugged Northwestern District. Throughout summer practice, however, thoughts of the season were quite different. The thirty-five spirited pre-season workouts, led by an enthusiastic Coach Ron Rice, seemed to hint of better things to come.

A 7-2-1 SEASON

with "Cinderella" Team.

Indeed, the hints bore themselves out as the Judges won an opening game victory over the Martinsburg Bulldogs, mainly on the strength of a staunch goal line stand in the final quarter. The Handley spirits rose ever higher as the team, aided by its stingy and vicious defense, shut out Beall, 21-0. The Judges were stopped cold, however, by a 19-0 defeat at the hands of Warren County, future District 10 champs. The Judges again came out on the wrong end of the decision, 13-6, in a wet but bruising game with the Mustangs of George Mason. Finally, in the fifth game, our offense got untracked as we walloped Loudoun Valley 27-6 for our first District win. From then on it was uphill for the Judges.

At mid-season, the lowly Fauquier Falcons bore the full brunt of the team's now explosive offense, coupled with the usual fine defensive effort, and went down by a score of 33-6 to the delight of joyous Handley Homecoming fans. On October 22, the high-flying Clarke County Eagles rolled into town, supposedly on their way to the District crown. In the first two minutes of the game, however, they were rudely awakened to the fact that this was to be no day for "fun and games", as the Handley Judges drove for a score the first time they touched the ball. The day ended with the Judges coming out on top of a fierce defensive battle by the score of 13-12.

A massive Loudoun County team fell victim to the Judges' attack, 19-6, heightening the tension for the game of the year with Herndon for the District championship the following week. With a brave effort, the outweighed and outmanned Judges battled the Hornets to a 14-14 deadlock, which backed Herndon into the title. The team took out their revenge on archrival James Wood, slapping them with a 27-19 loss before a record crowd of 7,000.

This season has certainly been a tribute to Coach Ron Rice, who completely reversed last year's record of 2-7-1. Who, at the beginning of the season, would have guessed the Judges would miss the District title by one-half game? Coach Rice himself summed up our season best, "Herndon won the title, but they could only tie the best team in the district."

JUDGES FEATURE POTENT OFFENSE

The Handley Bench

In addition to the strong passing threat, the Judges had one of the most exciting running games in the Northwestern District. Halfback Kermit Slonaker consistently excited the crowd with his pass receptions and end sweeps. In contrast, agile Dave Dixon and powerful Danny Conley added inside power to the running attack. Steady Jimmy Rhodes functioned effectively as both an outside and inside runner. Doug Toan and David Moore, two Junior quarterbacks, combined their aerial talents for a fine completion percentage of 43%. End David Strunce, our chief pass receiver, caught nineteen passes for over 380 yards, and a touchdown, Don Ratliff and Kermit Slonaker also caught for much valued yardage.

AND STINGY DEFENSE

This year's defensive line featured Mike McLaughlin, Butch Pope, Rocky Yost, and Mark Boettner, and left many opposing backs questioning professionalism in high school football. If a lucky runner did chance to pierce the front four, they merely waited to be hauled down by meat grinders Bill Sardelis, Larry Nelson, and Clarke Haley. Steve Lake, another defensive standout, was injured midway through the season. Sardelis, Pope, and Yost were named to the Winchester Evening Star All--Area Team, first string. Sardelis is a likely candidate for All--District and All--State mention. Our pass coverage of David Strunce, Kermit Slonaker, and David Dixon was one of the best in the area.

JUDGES LAND FOUR BOYS ON ALL-EVENING STAR FIRST TEAM

Not only did this year's team exemplify teamwork, but it was also characterized by individual stars. Attesting to this was the fact that four members of the Judges were named to the All-Evening Star first team. Halfback Kermit Slonaker racked up forty-two points this year, as he rushed for 617 yards and totaled added yardage on pass receptions. The fastest man on the team, Kermit also excelled on defense in the secondary. Bill Sardelis, the team's inspirational leader, led the team in tackles and provided fine offensive blocking from his guard position. From his center position, Butch Pope showed classy downfield blocking and played a major part in some of the team's clutch goal line stands. Rocky Yost, the only junior member from Handley to be named to the all-area team, was a steady competitor throughout the season. He proved to be an iron-man as he operated from his tackle spot on both offense and defense. In addition to these honors bestowed upon our players, Coach Ron Rice was named the area "Coach of the Year." To earn this award, Coach Rice completely reversed last year's 2-7-1 record to a 7-2-1 season in his first year here. These recognitions are a tribute to our players and coaching staff.

Led by a stellar defense, the J.V.'s allowed the opposition only thirteen points throughout their seven games. Their explosive offense, sparked by fullback Monte Hinkle, ran up one hundred and thirty-nine points. The Attorneys clinched their perfect 7-0 record with a final game victory over a tough Loudoun County team. At the sound of the final gun, the J.V.'s carried a deserving Coach Welch off the field. This fine team, with its desire and will to win, should provide Varsity Coach Rice with excellent material next year.

"MADDEX FIELD-HOUSE"

Coach Hunter Maddex led his fast-breaking Judges to their first regular season District championship in three years. The team averaged some 61 points a game to its opponents 49. With all but the final league to play, the Judges held a fine 12-5 record with all competition and an 11-2 league record. This meant that the Judges could do no worse than tie for the District championship.

This was the first year the Judges played in the vast expanses of the "Maddex fieldhouse." In the first game of the season the new gym received its baptism of fire as the Judges trounced archrival James Wood 61-46. Next came a big win over Clarke County to continue Handley's athletic domination over the rival Eagles this year. In defeating Loudoun County by two points with a brilliant late comeback, the Judges became the team to beat in the NW District.

To emphasize this, the Judges reeled off successive routs at Martinsburg and Loudoun Valley at home and then went to the road to put down a stubborn Fauquier five and a hot-handed Herndon team. The Judges then gave the George Mason Mustangs, last year's District champs and conquerors of Handley, their come-uppance by burying them by thirty-seven points at home giving Handley eight straight victories.

The Judges were handed a stunning defeat the following nitht, however, by powerful Robert E. Lee. This was the final game for high-scoring Bill Beamer and his loss upset the Judges balance somewhat.

In our return match with the Bulldogs in the Martinsburg version of the proverbial "crackerbox," the Judges dropped their second straight game and also lost senior guard Eppa Griffith on an injury. Playing with half of our starting five, the Judges lost their first league game to fast improving Loudoun County on their home court.

The Judges showed dogged determination, however, as they again defeated the Clarke County Eagles to fight back into their winning ways. They quickly regained their lost confidence and balance as they clobbered Loudoun Valley by forty-eight points in their next game.

In a contest to decide first place in the district, the Judges dropped a heartbreaking game to the James Wood Colonels by a single point 52-51.

They quickly rebounded, though, with successive wins over Fauquier and Herndon at home which, coupled with two James Wood losses put us one game ahead of Loudoun

County and one and one-half ahead of the Colonels. The Judges then traveled to Staunton for a rematch with the powerful Leemen and surprised all their critics with a narrow overtime loss. BALANCED ATTACK AND BENCH

The addition of a new gymnasium to our athletic facilities brought a dramatic change in the character of the '66-'67 basketball team. Whereas before, inhibited by the confines of the crackerbox, Handley teams had been forced to play a methodical, slow-down type of game, this year's Judges were characterized by a blazing fast break, complemented by their traditionally strong, attacking, man-for-man defense. Finally, Handley featured a team with balance unmatched by the rest of the league; there was no such thing as a constant starting five. Scoring honors went to a different man each game.

Before being lost at midseason, guards Bill Beamer and Eppa Griffith sparked the team with their smooth ball handling. The two senior speedsters also contributed considerably to the fast break attack. Juniors Tommy Thompson and Jimmy Rhodes plus sophomore Danny Conley performed exceptionally well under pressure when called upon in the latter part of the season. The forward position was capably handled by seniors Dave Strunce and Bobby Mason, and juniors Mike Thompson and Dave Dixon. The versatile skills possessed by these four athletes often was the key factor in our winning season, as they served as ball-handlers and helped considerably with the rebounding chores. The team's leading rebounder was Clark Dixon, a real smoothie in the pivot. When a rest was due for the lanky senior, junior Shep Campbell ably filled the position. Under the guiding hand of Coach Omps, the Attorneys have once more come through with a great season. The firm background given to these freshmen and sophomores is a milestone in the progress of the ability and knowledge required by the game. Playing on the JV's is not only fun for the boys' but it provides good preparation for Varsity competition.

Although this year's team boasted a wealth of individual talent, the secret of the Attorneys' success has been their speed and hustle. In the words of a JV, "Nothing beats it." The Attorneys' favorite defense is a man-to-man press; their favorite offense, the fast break. Their games have provided a colorful prelude to each varsity contest.

With the promise for success by this year's JV team, the outlook on the future is bright for Handley.

JR. HIGH FOOTBALL

This year's Junior High team saw its twenty-five game winning streak broken in its first game. With the seventh grade gone from Handley, the team lacked the usual number of players it has had in the past. The Junior High lost twice to a powerhouse Frederick County eleven but showed promising signs in wins over Fauquier County and R.M.A. The other loss came to a big Charles Town squad. Coaches Crosen and Sinclair faced an unusually tough job due to a lack of manpower, and their task was made harder by the fact that this was the first year of coaching for either of them. Under these handicaps, the team and coaches are to be congratulated for a fine effort.

Selected rom the eighth grade boys who participated in December's intramural program, the members of Handley's Junior High basketball team have posted an outstanding record this year. These "little Judges", who routed their opposition in almost every contest, are better known to loyal rooters as the "Handley Defenders." Under the patient coaching of Mr. Welch, they practiced the basic basketball skills and learned teamwork and coordination in their plays. "These boys really do have desire to work hard," Coach Welch said, "and a definite desire to win." This is the stuff of which Handley's fine varsity and junior varsity teams are made.

DAVE STRUNCE WINS STATE TITLE IN 880 DASH

Handley's track team, led by David Strunce, Ben Dick, and Ivan Stubbs, turned in a very respectable performance in 1966, finishing with four firsts, three seconds, and a fourth. The season began on a cold March Saturday afternoon with Handley emerging victorious in a triangular meet with Broadway and Central. The following Saturday, the Handley thinclads ventured to Falls Church for a triangular meet, where a strong Herndon team romped, with Handley taking second and George Mason a third. April the 9th saw the Judges up against a very formidable field in our annual Handley Invitational. Receiving a strong all-around performance, Handley triumphed in this meet for the second straight year. On Saturday night, April 16, Handley traveled to Martinsburg for the always tough Martinsburg Invitational. Here, Handley placed fourth, far behind the powerful winner, Frederick. Highlighting this meet was Dave Srunce's victory in the 880, establishing a new school record. After winning the Clarke County Invitational, Handley dropped the annual City-County meet to a fired up James Wood. Finishing the season was the Northwestern District track meet. The four Handley men who placed first or second in District were eligible for the State Meet at Lexington. Here Ben Dick took third in the mile, and Dave Strunce won the coveted white sweater with a first in the 880.

HANDLEY INITIATES CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

This fall Handley fielded its first cross-country team. Coached by Mr. West, these hard-running boys worked out faithfully everyday, as they developed stamina and endurance. In a sport that was unheralded and overlooked this year, the cross-country team showed great perseverance in a sport where desire often outweighs ability. The team was able to participate in four meets with area schools, including the Northwestern District meet. Although they did not win any first or second places this season, senior member Scott Pierce succeeded in taking two thirds and a fourth in competition. We hope that this first year will be the foundation for a bright future of cross-country at Handley.

GOLF TEAM DRIVES TO DISTRICT TITLE

Park Plumly, state runner-up with Coach Ancil Gray.

Last year the 1966 edition of the Handley golf team, coached by Mr. Ancil Gray, won the Northwestern District golf championship. This marks the third time that this feat has been accomplished since the organization of the golf team three years ago. During the regular season, the team completed their nine matches without suffering a defeat, as they beat Fauquier and James Wood twice and defeated Herndon, James Monroe, Clarke County, Loudoun County, and Loudoun Valley once apiece. With their District victory, the Handley linksmen represented the Northwestern District in the state competition at the Winchester Golf and Country Club, which was their home course during seasonal play. Here, our team narrowly missed the state title as they brought the State Runner-up title home to Handley. In individual competition, Park Plumly received special honors by placing second in the state.

This coming season should also be a fine one for the team, although they have lost Plumly and captain Gordie Legg via graduation. However, Doug Anderson, with his steady game, will be returning with Shep Campbell. Another promising prospect is Dave Lord.

MONOGRAM CLUB TAKES ON NEW ACTIVITIES

Perhaps more than any organization at Handley, the Boys' Monogram Club typified the renewed spirit of the '66-'67 school year. Under the vigorous leadership of Coaches Rice, Kelican, and Maddex, the Club, consisting of all Varsity lettermen, undertook many new projects which included maintaining the bulletin boards in the new gym, reporting athletic news to the Jr. Evening Star, operating a concession stand at home basketball games, and organizing a joint caroling venture with the Girls' Monogram Club during the Christmas season. In addition to these projects, the Boys' Monogram Club continued to perform their traditional duties of ushering at home basketball contests and at the annual Christmas Concert. During the football season, the Club assisted the cheerleaders in producing several inspired pep rallies. The revived activity of this year's Boys' Monogram Club has set a valuable precedent for future years, for a strong monogram club will certainly benefit our entire athletic program.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS INITIATE 'SPIRIT STICK'

Full of pep and enthusiasm, our Varsity Cheerleaders have done an excellent job of boosting school spirit this year. The result of their all-out effort in planning pep rallies and supporting the Judges is reflected in the successful 1966-1967 football and basketball seasons.

These girls, selected from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, have spent endless hours working up new ideas to promote enthusiasm. This year they initiated the "spirit stick" which was awarded to the class giving their team the most support at football pep rallies. By sending letters to the team members and posting signs in the halls, they helped to inspire the boys. Last summer they attended cheer camp in Indiana where they received several ribbons in daily competition. We at Handley feel that our Varsity Cheerleaders are GREAT.

JV CHEERLEADERS SUPPORT ATTORNEYS

We feel that the fine records of the Jr. Varsity teams, both football and basketball, are due in part to the outstanding job done by our JV cheerleaders. These enthusiastic girls have devoted themselves fully to leading the student body in the support of the Attorneys. Whether in writing and performing skits or in planning pep assemblies, the JV's are always ready to do their share.

Chosen through tryouts from the eighth, ninth, and tenth grades, these girls, as JV's, gain valuable experience that will someday aid them as varsity cheerleaders. In the opinion of the Varsity cheerleaders, who have spent tireless hours coaching and training the younger girls, this year's squad is one of Handley's best.

GIRLS' MONOGRAM CLUB CONSISTS OF THOSE MOST ACTIVE IN GIRLS' SPORTS

Officers: Susu Myers, President; Linda Reynolds, Secretary.

To wear the white letter sweater of the Girls' Monogram Club is the goal of many an intramural sports enthusiast at Handley. Membership in this group involves a great deal of participation over a period of several years. To [redacted]n her letter, a girl must acquire a total of 500 points playing after school in the intramural tournaments in h sports as field hockey, archery, badminton, volley- ll, basketball, deck tennis, and softball. Winners and nners-up in each contest are awarded extra points toward eir letters. Points are also given for officiating at the mes and practice sessions, and for serving on the Intra- ural Council. For each 200 points a girl earns above e required 500, she receives a bar to wear on her sweater.

To look stunning in a Monogram sweater, however, is rdly the first objective of a Handley letterlady. She has any responsibilities--ushering at basketball games (a easant duty in the new gym), decorating the club bulletin oard, serving coffee to the parents at the Parents' Day otball game, working on the gym concession stand along ith the Boys' Monogram Club, and keeping Handley's seful of trophies brightly polished and shiny. She may in with the other girls and boys in the Monogram Clubs r an evening of Christmas caroling or help prepare the nual club picnic in May. Girls' Monogram Club mem- rs have also been seen on the stage portraying Handley yers, fans, coaches, and opponents in original pep rally its and songs. Behind the scenes they work to maintain ndley's high standards of clean competition, team spirit, and fine sportsmanship in both girls' and boys' athletics.

JUNIOR TEAMS BATTLE IN BASKETBALL FINALS

Girls' basketball, now open to all the classes, was strictly an 11th and 12th grade sport in 1966, when two junior teams battled it out for the championship. The skill of team captain Betty Walker and Kay Beamer, acquired on the championship team of Douglas High, helped to overpower Ann Miller's team in the final playoff. Last spring's intramural contests were the first basketball tournaments ever played in Handley's new gymnasium.

SENIORS TOP JUNIORS IN SUDDEN DEATH

This fall's hockey season proved to be a continuous battle for the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls--against rainy weather, soggy fields, and postponed games. Still, spirit ran high as Cheryl Cooper's senior team and Sandy Shaw's juniors renewed an old rivalry in the final playoff. The tremendous defense of each group held the other scoreless for two halves. Finally, after twenty mintues of sudden-death play, the senior team broke through for the victory goal.

This year a team of sophomores clinched the intramural volleyball championship and broke the upperclass monopoly on girls' sports. Captained by Ann Hughes, the "10C Dozen" triumphed over Kay Beamer's senior team, the "KKK's," in the final three-game playoff.

INTRAMURAL COUNCIL GOVERNS GIRLS' ATHLETICS

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION DIRECTORS: Mrs. Bruton, Mrs. Isherwood, Miss Ragland.

Handley's energetic new Physical Education teachers--Mrs. Bruton, Miss Ragland, and Department Director Mrs. Isherwood--have done much to revitalize their program. This year, for the first time, all students, grades 8 through 12, took phys. ed., so the staff was challenged to create a curriculum featuring a wide variety of useful skills and activities for the different classes. In addition to teaching the traditionally popular Handley sports of hockey, volleyball, archery, badminton, and basketball, the teachers introduced soccer, tumbling, bowling, deck tennis, and track. There was even a unit on folk and modern dancing.

The intramural sports program, too, was thrown open to all grade levels. However, the credit given for each sport was reduced, making the race for the coveted JH monogram as tight as ever. To deal with any problems arising in the organization and rules of intramural tournaments, the phys. ed. directors established an Intramural Council. The IMC, as it is called, consists of representatives elected from every girls' homeroom in the school and holds regular meetings once a month. During the year it has been called upon to lay down the law of player eligibility, game replay, and team organization. The IMC also serves as a media for relaying information to homerooms. Its official newssheet, THE WHISTLE, edited by Bonni McKeown and Ann Miller, is published monthly. It contains important announcements, feature articles, and reports on the various games written up by the girls themselves. Through the IMC and THE WHISTLE, every Handley girl has a part in shaping the intramural sports program.

"BY THE SEASIDE" IS MOTIF FOR SUCCESSFUL 1966

Last spring, the Class of 1966 was given a send-off party which neither it nor the Prom's planners, this year's Seniors, will ever forget. Weeks of careful planning, borne out by the actual construction of the decorations through the labors of perseverant Juniors, seemed to have been worth every minute as the Prom flowered into a huge success. The Class of 1967 can pat itself on the back and rest assured that last year's Prom would compare favorably with any other.

NEW GYM FEATURES MODERN

Handley's new athletic building has already proved to be an exciting arena for many activities. The structure, just completed last spring, houses a main gym with a full-length basketball court and two cross-courts. This modern, attractive gymnasium has bleacher space for two thousand and space to seat an additional five hundred. A small auxiliary gym, ideal for handball, adjoins the main floor. Bright, spacious locker rooms provide clean and modern facilities for the boys' and girls' physical education teams as well as for the athletic teams. The new building also boasts new health classrooms and offices, lobbies with ticket booths and refreshment stands, and a pressbox for sportswriters and broadcasters.

Main gym floor provides ample room for simultaneous action of boys' volleyball and girls' basketball.

Pressbox provides an excellent view for sportscasters and local broadcasters.

INNOVATIONS FOR ATHLETICS

In addition to serving as a regular setting for physical education and Handley basketball, the Handley gym has attracted some top-billed athletic events to our school. Among them are: the 1967 Northwestern District basketball tournaments; the Harlem Globetrotters; and the All-American girls basketball team, the "Red Heads."

All this has been quite a treat for Mr. Maddex and the long-suffering Handley students and fans, who have been packed into (or turned away from) the old "cracker box" gym for forty-two years.

Main entrance to gym, like the rest of the new building, has modern, low-line architecture.
